

Trading Policy

Integrated Research Limited (ACN 003 588 449) (Company)

Adopted by the Board on 18 June 2026

1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose

This policy summarises the law relating to insider trading, considers the perception of insider trading and sets out the Company's policy on the buying and selling the Company's Securities.

The aim of the policy is to preserve the reputation and integrity of the Company via a framework through which those associated with the Company can deal in the Company's securities, without any actual or perceived wrongdoing.

1.2 Glossary

Terms used in this policy are defined in the Glossary in schedule 1.

1.3 Who does this policy apply to?

This policy applies as follows:

- Part 2 (insider trading laws) and part 7 (confidential information) applies to everyone (including all Directors officers, Key Management Personnel, employees, and contractors of the Company, their family and associates) (each a "Relevant Person").
- This whole trading policy also applies to everyone (including all Directors officers, Key Management Personnel, employees, and contractors of the Company, their family and associates) (each a "Designated Person").

1.4 Further advice

If you do not understand any aspect of this trading policy or are uncertain whether it applies to you or your family or associates, please contact the Company Secretary. You may wish to obtain your own legal or financial advice before dealing in the Company's Securities.

2. Insider trading prohibitions in the Corporations Act

2.1 What are the insider trading prohibitions?

Under the Corporations Act, if you have Inside Information (as defined in paragraph 2.2) relating to the Company, it is illegal for you to:

- (a) deal in (that is, apply for, acquire or dispose of) the Company's Securities or enter into an agreement to do so or grant, accept, acquire, dispose, exercise or discharge an option or other right or obligation to acquire or dispose of the Company's Securities; or
- (b) procure another person to deal in the Company's Securities or enter into an agreement to do so; or
- (c) directly or indirectly communicate, or cause to be communicated, that information to any other person if you know, or ought reasonably to know, that the person would or would be likely to use the information to engage in the activities specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) above.

Any capacity

It does not matter how or in what capacity you become aware of the Inside Information. It does not have to be obtained from the Company to constitute Inside Information.

No giving "tips"

You cannot avoid the insider trading prohibition by arranging for a member of your family or a friend to deal in the Company's Securities, nor may you give "tips" concerning Inside Information relating to the Company to others.

The above prohibitions apply to all Relevant Persons (including Designated Persons) at all times.

2.2 What is Inside Information?

Inside Information, in respect of the Company, is information relating to the Company:

- (a) which is not generally available; but
- (b) if the information were generally available, would be likely to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's Securities.

Inside Information can include matters of speculation or supposition and matters relating to intentions or likely intentions, of a person.

Information is regarded as being likely to have a material effect if it would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities or other traded financial products in deciding whether or not to deal in the Company's Securities.

Inside Information is also called 'material price-sensitive information'. It need not relate only to the Company. It could also be information about a customer, or supplier of the

INTEGRATED RESEARCH LIMITED

TRADING POLICY

Company, or a party with whom the Company is discussing future opportunities or negotiating a significant transaction.

Examples of Inside Information could be (this list is not exhaustive):

- (a) the financial performance of the Company against its budget or against forecasts;
- (b) changes in the actual or anticipated financial condition or business performance of the Company;
- (c) changes in the capital structure of the Company, including proposals to raise additional equity or borrowings;
- (d) proposed changes in the nature of the business of the Company;
- (e) changes to the Board or significant changes in Key Management Personnel;
- (f) an undisclosed significant change in the Company's market share;
- (g) likely or actual entry into, or loss of, a material contract by the Company;
- (h) material acquisitions or sales of assets by the Company;
- (i) a proposed dividend or other distribution or a change in dividend policy of the Company; or
- (j) a material claim against the Company or other unexpected liability.

2.3 When is information generally available?

Information is generally available if:

- (a) it consists of readily observable matter or deductions;
- (b) it has been brought to the attention of investors through an announcement to ASX Limited (ASX) or otherwise similarly brought to the attention of investors who commonly invest in securities, and a reasonable period has elapsed since it was announced or brought to investors' attention; or
- (c) it consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn from information referred to in paragraphs (a) or (b) above.

Examples of possible readily observable matters are:

- (a) a change in legislation which will affect the Company's ability to make certain types of investments; or
- (b) a severe downturn in global securities markets.

2.4 Penalties

Breaching the insider trading laws may subject you to:

- (a) criminal liability - penalties include heavy fines and imprisonment;

TRADING POLICY

- (b) civil liability - you can be sued by another party or the Company for any loss suffered as a result of illegal trading activities;
- (c) civil penalty provisions - the Australian Securities and Investments Commission may seek civil penalties against you and may even seek a court order that you be disqualified from managing a corporation.

Breaching the law, this policy, or both, will also be regarded by the Company as serious conduct which may lead to disciplinary action or dismissal.

3. No Dealing in Closed Trading Windows

3.1 Prohibited Periods

A Designated Person or their Associate must not, in any circumstances, deal or procure another person to deal in the Company's Securities if they have Inside Information in relation to the Company's Securities.

A Designated Person or their Associate must not deal in the Company's Securities except in the following periods (and in accordance with this policy), (open trading windows):

- (a) from the business day after the release of the Company's half yearly results to the ASX for 56 days;
- (b) from the business day after the release of the Company's full year results to the ASX for 56 days (for clarity the release of the preliminary financial report will trigger this clause); and
- (c) from the business day after Annual General Meeting (AGM) for a period of two weeks.

The Board may declare a trading window open for a specified period at other times (such as following the announcement to the ASX of a significant event).

Periods outside of the above are referred to as closed trading windows.

The Company Secretary, acting at the direction of the Board, may declare at any other time that a trading window has closed and notify relevant persons accordingly.

3.2 Prior notification

If a Designated Person proposes to deal in the Company's Securities (including entering into an agreement to deal) at any time, they must first:

- (a) complete a Personal Trading Approval Form (Schedule A) of their intention to the Notification Officer who is:
 - (i) Chair of the Board for all directors of the Company (other than the Chair of the Board), and the Company Secretary (or another non-executive director for the Company Secretary);
 - (ii) for the Chair of the Board, another non-executive director and the Company Secretary; and
 - (iii) Company Secretary for all other Designated Persons; and

TRADING POLICY

- (b) receive written clearance from the Notification Officer.

The relevant Notification Officer may appoint a delegate to act on his or her behalf in the case of temporary absence.

3.3 Confirmation

Before dealing in the Company's Securities, the Designated Person must receive a confirmation signed by the Notification Officer. The Notification Officer may give a confirmation in exceptional circumstances (see part 5 below).

A confirmation:

- (i) must be in writing and may be given by hand or emailed;
- (ii) will only be given if the Notification Officer is satisfied that the applicant has no Inside Information and the circumstances are exceptional;
- (iii) lapses immediately if the applicant acquires Inside Information;
- (iv) can be given or refused by the Notification Officer in its absolute discretion without providing any reasons;
- (v) expires ten days from its date, unless it specifies a different expiry date; and
- (vi) may be withdrawn if new information comes to light or there is a change in circumstances.

Confirmation will not be given:

- (i) retrospectively;
- (ii) if there is a matter about which there is Inside Information in relation to the Company's Securities (regardless of whether the applicant is aware of it) when a confirmation is requested; or
- (iii) if there is other reason to believe that the proposed dealing breaches this policy.

The Notification Officer must keep a written record of any information or request received in connection with this policy and any confirmation given

A confirmation confirms that the proposed dealing by the Designated Person is within the terms of the Trading Policy but does not otherwise constitute approval or endorsement by the Company or the Notification Officer for the proposed dealing. Even if a clearance is granted, a Designated Person remains personally responsible for assessing whether the General Prohibition applies to them.

3.4 Notification of dealing

In addition to providing advance notice under paragraph 3.2, Directors and other key management personnel must confirm in writing to the relevant Notification Officer, as soon as reasonably possible and in any event within three business days from when the dealing in the Company's Securities has occurred, the number of the Company's Securities affected and the relevant parties to the dealing.

3.5 Notifying interests and updating registers

A register of Designated Persons' interests in the Company's Securities is to be kept by the Company Secretary.

The Company, its Directors and Company Secretary will comply with requirements regarding notifying Directors' interests and updating Company registers including:

- disclosure obligations under the ASX Listing Rules (such as under ASX Listing Rules 3.1 and 3.19A)
- notifying ASIC of a substantial shareholding or change to that holding (under section 617B of the Corporations Act)
- for notifications, requests and clearances under this policy; and
- for Directors' material, personal interests and standing notices (under Ch 2D div 2 of the Corporations Act).

3.6 Securities of other entities

The ban on insider trading also applies to the securities of other entities if you possess Inside Information about those entities. This includes suppliers, contractors and customers of the Company.

3.7 Associates

This policy also applies to Associates of Designated Persons, except paragraphs 3.2 to 3.4 regarding prior notification, confirmation and notification of dealing. If relevant, a Designated Person must inform their Associates about this policy and communicate on behalf of their Associate with the Notification Officer for the purposes of this policy.

4. Exceptional Circumstances

4.1 Request

If there are exceptional circumstances, a Designated Person may request, and the Notification Officer may give, prior confirmation clearance for the Designated Person to:

- (a) deal in the Company's Securities during a closed trading window; or
- (b) dispose of the Company's Securities even if otherwise prohibited under part 6, except if this would breach the insider trading prohibition – see part 2 above.

4.2 Examples of exceptional circumstances

Exceptional circumstances may include:

- (a) severe financial hardship, for example, a pressing financial commitment that cannot be satisfied otherwise than by selling the relevant Company Securities;

TRADING POLICY

- (b) requirements under a court order or court enforceable undertakings or other legal or regulatory requirements; or
- (c) other exceptional circumstances as determined by the Chair of the Board (or the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee where the Chair is involved).

A liability to pay tax does not normally constitute severe financial difficulty.

If the Notification Officer has any doubts about determining exceptional circumstances, they should exercise their discretion with caution. The Notification Officer also has discretion to determine circumstances other than those set out above.

The requirements with respect to prior notification, clearance and notification of dealing under part 4 all continue to apply where exceptional circumstances apply.

5. Permitted Dealings

Certain types of dealings are excluded from the operation of part 4 of this policy and may, save as set out below, be undertaken at any time without requiring prior notification, approval or confirmation of dealing, subject to the insider trading prohibitions. The following are permitted primarily on the basis that the trading is passive, restrictive, outside of the individual's control or there is no underlying change in beneficial owner:

- (a) (superannuation) transfers of Securities which are already held in a superannuation fund or other saving scheme in which the Designated Person is a beneficiary, provided that prior written clearance has been provided in accordance with procedures set out in this policy (excluding self-managed superannuation funds (SMSF) where the Designated Person is a Trustee of the SMSF or a director of the trustee of the SMSF);
- (b) (third parties) an investment in, or trading in units of, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in the Company's Securities) where the assets of the fund or other scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party;
- (c) (other trustees) where a Designated Person is a trustee, trading in the Company's Securities by the respective trust provided the Designated Person is not a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade during a Prohibited Period is taken by the other trustees or by the investment managers independently of the Person;
- (d) (takeover) undertaking to accept, or accepting, an offer for Company Securities made under a takeover bid or disposing of Company Securities under a court-approved compromise or arrangement under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act;
- (e) (rights offers, SPPs, DRPs and buy-backs) trading under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the security holders, such as a rights issue, a security purchase plan, a dividend or distribution reinvestment plan and an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the Company's Board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata issue;

TRADING POLICY

- (f) (lender disposal) a disposal of the Company's Securities that is the result of a secured lender exercising their rights, however, this does not extend to disposal under any margin lending agreements, where such agreements are prohibited by this policy;
- (g) (incentive scheme) the exercise (but not the sale of the Company's Securities following exercise) of an option or right under an employee incentive scheme, or the conversion of a convertible security, where the final date for the exercise of the option or right, or the conversion of the security, falls during a closed trading window and the Company has been in an exceptionally long closed trading window and the Designated Person could not reasonably have been expected to exercise it at a time when free to do so;
- (h) (dividend reinvestment plan) acquiring the Company's Securities under the terms of the company's dividend reinvestment plan where the Designated Person did not enter into the plan or amend their participation in the plan during a closed trading window;
- (i) (bonus issues) acquiring the Company's Securities under a bonus issue made to all holders of the Company's Securities of the same class;
- (j) (no change in beneficial interest) trading the Company's Securities where the trading results in no change in beneficial interest in the Company's Securities. However, the requirements of paragraphs 3.2 to 3.4 must be complied with;
- (k) (transfer to SMSF) transferring the Company's Securities already held into a self-managed superannuation fund in which the Designated Person is a beneficiary for which prior written clearance has been provided in accordance with procedures set out in this policy;
- (l) (subscription under disclosure document) subscribing for Company Securities under a disclosure document;
- (m) (family transactions) transactions between an individual and a close family member or civil partner for which prior written clearance has been provided in accordance with procedures set out in this policy;
- (n) (cancellation) of the Company's Securities as a result of failure to vest or other forfeiture of securities received by individuals as part of performance-based remuneration; and
- (o) (performance hurdles) vesting (but not subsequent sale) of the Company's Securities as a result of meeting performance hurdles or release of the Company's Securities from holding lock or holding term in respect of securities received by individuals as part of performance-based remuneration.

Under the insider trading laws, a person who possesses Inside Information may be prohibited from trading even where the trading falls within an exception specified above.

6. Further restrictions

6.1 No margin lending

Designated Persons are not permitted to enter into margin lending arrangements in relation to the Company's Securities. This is on the grounds that the terms may require the Company's Securities to be sold during a closed trading window or when the Designated Person possesses Inside Information.

This restriction does not extend to other funding arrangements where the Company's Securities may be included as security. Designated Persons should consult the Company Secretary if they are uncertain as to whether an arrangement should be classified as a margin lending arrangement.

6.2 No short term or speculative trading or short selling

The Company encourages Designated Persons to be long term investors in the Company.

Designated Persons must not engage in short term or speculative trading in the Company's Securities or in financial products associated with the Company's Securities. Short term is considered to be a 120 day period, meaning that any purchase of securities triggers this minimum holding period and those interests may not be sold. Designated Persons holding shares as a result of the exercise of any equity instrument issued under the Employee Incentive Plan are excluded from this 120 day holding period and are entitled to sell those shares (for clarity, the holding period still applies to shares held by Designated Persons that have been acquired by other means).

Designated Persons are not permitted to engage in short selling of the Company's Securities.

6.3 No Hedging or derivatives

Subject to the law, Designated Persons and their closely related parties (as defined in the Corporations Act) must not:

- (a) enter into transactions or arrangements (e.g. a derivative) with anyone which could have the effect of limiting their exposure to risk relating to an element of their remuneration that:
 - has not vested; or
 - has vested but remains subject to a holding lock; or
- (b) deal at any time in financial products associated with the Company's Securities, except for a type of dealing permitted by law or a permitted dealing under this policy.

Examples of prohibited arrangements:

- a put option on incentive remuneration;
- a short position on shares that forms part of the incentive remuneration. A short position is a position in relation to shares in a listed company where the quantity of the shares that a person has is less than the quantity of the shares that the person has an obligation to deliver; and

- an income protection insurance contract in which the insurable risk event affects the financial value of remuneration or equity or an equity-related instrument for the Key Management Personnel.

Examples of arrangements that are not prohibited:

- an income protection insurance contract in which the insurable risk event is death, incapacity or illness of any of the Key Management Personnel; and
- a foreign currency risk arrangement.

7. Confidential Information

You must treat all sensitive, non-public information (Confidential Information) about the Company as confidential and belonging to the Company.

You must not disclose Confidential Information to others (including family members, relatives, business or social acquaintances) except as authorised or legally required.

You must avoid inadvertent or indirect disclosure of Confidential Information. Even within the Company, Confidential Information should be distributed to or discussed with others only on a need-to-know basis, and those people must be told that the information is confidential.

Be careful that your conversations are not overheard in elevators, airplanes or other public places. Do not leave Confidential Information on conference tables, desks or otherwise unguarded.

Take whatever steps are reasonably necessary to keep Confidential Information from being disclosed, except as authorised or legally required.

8. Policy Awareness

To ensure all Designated Persons are aware of the Company's Trading Policy and its contents the Policy will be:

- part of the Company's Induction Pack for new employees and contractors;
- available on the Company's website and
- emails will be sent to Designated Persons notifying them when trading windows are open and closed.

9. Compliance

The responsibility of monitoring compliance with this policy will reside with the Board. The Company Secretary will bring any abnormalities identified to the attention of the Board.

10. Administration

10.1. Where can I obtain further information?

If you require further information or assistance or are uncertain about the application of this policy or the law, please contact the Company Secretary.

10.2. Review and publication of this policy

The Board will review this policy annually to ensure it remains relevant to the current needs of the Company. This policy may be amended by resolution of the Board.

A copy of this policy will be available on the Company's website. Key features will be published in the Corporate Governance Statement.
